A Picture Is Worth a Thousand Words

How true that is and with that being said, there are thousands of words in this newsletter!

A St. Patrick's Day trivia reading. We had some of the best Creme De Mint shakes...no pictures. Too busy making them! PLUS we had Pot-of-Gold Bingo!

The '60s!

The Sit In - Left to Right: Dianne, Tiffany, Robin and Debbie

Our van and bus in quiet mode

The '60s - just how many people did we get into that van? All of us! 14 staff, 1 brave resident and 1 little girl!

Our Easter Event!

360 eggs were hidden.
Johnny-O worked his magic with balloons. The Easter Bunny came to visit. Then the children and residents hunted for eggs and we ended the day with a social.
Enjoy the story in pictures! Thank you, Orrill, Karen, Sherry and Sandy for all your hard work!

Easter

Marie and her daughter, Sherry!

Residents' "Egg Hunt"
Really, they're not all pool balls!

Eggs everywhere, but the balloons seem to make the hit!

Johnny-O works his magic with balloons!

ELVIS!

Look at the faces. Nothing more to be said!

Hello! Your children will see this!!

The "King" shares a song with "Our Queen."

More!

Go, Helen! Twist!!

Jessie gets flirty eyes with Elvis as Phyllis waits her turn!

Some of our men made washcloth baby bunnies for their daughter or daughter-in-law.

The Easter Bonnet Parade!
Our ladies enjoyed showing off some of the most fancy Easter bonnets.

Elvis and Mr. Kline
Elvis showed some karate moves and Mr. Kline proved that he already had what it takes when it comes to all the moves! Mr. Kline is a huge Elvis fan and proved it was hard to sit still with all the good music.
